

Hungerford Primary School

GDPR Privacy notice

Who processes your information?

Hungerford Primary School is the data controller of the personal information you provide to us. This means that the school determines the purposes for which, and the manner in which, any personal data relating to pupils and their families is to be processed. Gerard Strong acts as the representative for the school with regard to its data controller responsibilities. He is the data protection officer at West Berkshire Council; his role is to oversee and monitor the school's data protection procedures and to ensure they are compliant with the General Data Protection Regulation. He can be contacted via the school on 01488 682230 or office@hungerford.w-berks.sch.uk.

In some cases, your data will be outsourced to a third party processor; however, this will only be done with your consent, unless law requires the school to share your data. Where the school outsources data to a third party processor, the same data protection standards that Hungerford Primary School upholds are imposed on the processor.

Why do we collect and use your information?

Hungerford Primary School holds the legal right to collect and use personal data relating to pupils and their families and we may also receive information regarding them from their previous school, LA and/or the DfE. We collect and use personal data in order to meet legal requirements and legitimate interests set out in the GDPR and UK law, including those in relation to the following:

- Article 6 and Article 9 of the GDPR
- Education Act 1996
- Regulation 5 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013

In accordance with the above, the personal data of pupils and their families is collected and used for the following reasons:

- To support pupil learning
- To monitor and report on pupil progress
- To provide appropriate pastoral care
- To safeguard pupils
- To assess the quality of our services
- To administer admissions waiting lists
- To comply with the law regarding data sharing

Which data is collected?

The categories of pupil information that the school collects, holds and shares include the following:

- Personal information – e.g names, addresses and dates of birth
- Assessment information – e.g national curriculum assessment results
- Characteristics- e.g ethnicity, language, country of birth and eligibility for free school meals
- Behavioural information – e.g number of temporary exclusions
- Relevant medical information
- Attendance information – e.g number of absences and absence reasons
- Information relating to SEND
- Photographs

Whilst the majority of the personal data you provide to the school or recorded by us is mandatory, some is provided on a voluntary basis. When collecting data, the school will inform you whether you are required to provide this data or if your consent is needed. Where consent is required, the school will provide you with specific and explicit information with regards to the reasons the data is being collected and how the data will be used.

How long is your data stored for?

Personal data relating to pupils at Hungerford Primary School and their families is stored in line with the School's GDPR Data Protection Policy.

Will my information be shared?

The school is required to share pupils' data with the DfE on a statutory basis.

The National Pupil Database (NPD) is managed by the DfE and contains information about pupils in schools in England. Hungerford Primary School is required by law to provide information about our pupils to the DfE as part of statutory data collections such as the school census; some of this information is then stored in the NPD. The DfE may share information about our pupils from the NPD with third parties who promote the education or wellbeing of children in England by:

- Conducting research or analysis
- Producing statistics
- Providing information, advice or guidance

The DfE has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of any data shared from the NDP is maintained.

Hungerford Primary School will not share your personal information with any third parties without your consent, unless the law and our policies allow us to do so. The school routinely shares information with:

- Schools that pupils attend after leaving us
- Our LA and other LAs
- The DfE
- Educators and examining bodies

- Ofsted
- The NHS
- School caterers
- The Friends of Hungerford Primary
- Cool Milk
- Residential and educational visit providers
- SchoolPing
- Bromcom
- Police forces, courts, tribunals – to meet our legal obligations to share certain information.

What are your rights?

Parents and pupils have the following rights in relation to the processing of their personal data.

You have a right to:

- Be informed about how Hungerford Primary uses your personal data.
- Request access to the personal information that Hungerford Primary holds.
- Request that your personal data is amended if it is inaccurate or incomplete.
- Request that your personal data is erased where there is no compelling reason for it's continued processing.
- Request that the processing of your data is restricted.
- Object to your personal data being processed.

Where the processing of your data is based on your consent, you have the right to withdraw this consent at any time.

If you have a concern about the way Hungerford Primary School is collecting or using your personal data, we request that you raise your concern with us in the first instance. Please contact us at office@hungerford.w-berks.sch.uk. Alternatively, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>

Where can you find out more information?

If you would like to find out more information about how we and/or the DfE collect, use and store your personal data, please download our GDPR data Protection Policy or contact our Headteacher Mrs L Smith at the school address.
